The Silver Lining Foundation (SLF) is a youth-led organisation that addresses bullying and violence within the framework of sexuality diversity. Through the Pillars of Support, Education and Advocacy, we have streamlined different initiatives to meet the needs of LGBTQ youth in Trinidad and Tobago and across the Caribbean. Our team has worked with individuals, organisations and donors across the globe to conduct pioneering research on bullying and violence in secondary schools, psychosocial peer support groups for LGBTQ youth and their families, mental health interventions and social outreach programmes for students and training programmes for school teachers and administrators where we've helped thousands of young people across the country.
